

Background history :

College library always remains as the heart of any academic institution with its rich collection and dedicated services to its potential users including students, faculties and non-teaching staff.

Bolpur College was established in 1950 and it was first affiliated to Calcutta University, and after the establishment of The University of Burdwan in 1960, the college came under this university. With the budding of the college its library also started serving its target users.

The Bolpur College library is a three storied building of 3358 sq.ft build up area having open access facilities consisting of stack, journal section, technical section, reading room with seating capacity of one hundred student users. The library can boast of its good collection on as many as 15 subjects like Bengali, English, Sanskrit, History, Political Science, Philosophy, Economics, Education, Physical Education, Geography, Commerce, Physics, Chemistry, Mathematics, Botany and Zoology. The activities mainly consisting of issue & returns i.e. circulation, technical processing of the library are fully computerized. Library Users have access to library OPAC- Online Public Access Catalogue (Available through Intranet-<http://172.19.185.54:8001/>). Students, Teachers and Staff can access internet facility from computer as well as their mobile handset with Wi-Fi connectivity available at library. The library subscribes twenty five (25) print journals on different subjects mentioned above. For the career guidance of the students' library also purchase Competition Success Review, India Today, Protiyogita Darpan, Science Reporter, Dristi Current Affairs Today, Frontline, Safollya, Desh, Employment News & Appointment & Career News, Karmakshetra etc. One English & one Bengali daily Newspapers also subscribed by the library for the academic community of the College. Library also subscribes N-LIST for the e-books & e-journals and users can access through remote log in.

RFID Gate at the Library