BOOK REVIEW

Name of the book: The Vault Of Vishnu

Name of the author: - Ashwin Sanghi

Book Reviewed by: - Sohan Maji, IX B (Session 2024-25)

"The Vault of Vishnu" by Ashwin Sanghi is an engaging blend of mythology, history, and modern intrigue. The novel follows a contemporary protagonist Paramjit Khurana aka Pam uncovering secrets linked to the legendary figure of Vishnu and ancient South India. Sanghi's rich descriptions and deep knowledge of Indian lore bring the story to life, creating an immersive experience.

The pacing is brisk, filled with twists that keep readers hooked, although the numerous characters and intricate plot can feel overwhelming at times. Despite this, the story concludes satisfyingly, exploring themes of duty and the cyclical nature of history.

Overall, it's a compelling read for fans of historical fiction and mythology, offering both entertainment and thoughtful insights into culture and identity.
