

DU VC congratulated the students on the start of the new session

New Delhi, Focus News: The new academic session of University of Delhi started on Wednesday, 16th August as per earlier announcement. On the commencement of the new session, Vice Chancellor Professor Yogesh Singh extended best wishes to all the newly admitted students in undergraduate programmes. The Vice Chancellor called upon the students to go to the campus of their respective colleges without any worries. He said that it is a very pleasant experience for the students to come to their chosen colleges in the new session. The Vice-Chancellor informed that in this academic session 2023-2024, a total of 64288 students have confirmed to have admission till August 15 at the conclusion of the second round of the Common Seat Allocation System (CSAS). Allocation was offered to 105426 students in the first and second round, out of which 64288 students have confirmed their admission. The Vice Chancellor assured the new students that DU is a completely ragging free university. To avoid any untoward incident with any student, he called upon the senior students to give love and respect to the newly arrived students like younger siblings. Regarding women empowerment in the country, the Vice Chancellor said that the admission percentage of females in all colleges of DU has been more than half, which is a pleasant aspect. He said that the percentage of females who took admission is 53% while the

PGDAV College (Evng.)

As a special gesture and in tune with high traditions of DAV, PGDAV College (evening) welcomed all the newly admitted students of 1st year by applying Chandan Tilak on their foreheads. The Principal of the college Prof Ravindra Gupta exhorted the students to use this opportunity of getting higher education in PGDAV College (E). He assured them to have full support and cooperation of the college administration to achieve this personality enhancement and transformation. Prof Ravindra Gupta told Focus News that in the college, classes of all courses were started on the very first day. The classes witnessed an encouraging presence of first year students. The attendance of second and final year students was also reasonably good.

percentage of males is 47%.

Colleges with highest admissions: Dean Admissions, University of Delhi, Prof. Haneeet Gandhi shared information about the choice of colleges by the students in both the rounds. She said that in the first round, Dyal Singh College, Hansraj College, Gargi College, Ramjas College and Kirori Mal College were the top five colleges in which maximum admissions were made. She said that Swami Shradhdhanand, Deshbandhu College and Zakir Hussain College were the top three colleges in the second round

