Dear Colleagues,

As you are aware that many online facilities are being provided to faculty and students by the college library.

Delhi University has also launched an e-library web platform "Delhi University Library System (DULS)". The purpose of this platform is to allow users to have access to millions of DU resources through remote access.

This facility is being provided only to registered users.

Most faculty members are already availing this facility.

The Library Committee is organizing an online workshop on "How to use E-Resource of Delhi University Through Remote Access".

The workshop is scheduled to be held on Vikram Samvat 2080, Ashad Maas, Sankranti, Veervar i.e. Thursday, 15.06.2023 at 10:45 AM.

The link for the workshop will be sent to you through e-mail.

You are requested to join the online workshop on zoom to take full advantage of this highly advanced and user-friendly Remote Access Facility

Thank you.

Akumar
