

ABOUT US

Thomas Carlyle once said that the true university is nothing but a collection of books. The library is a place for lifelong and endless self-learning. And not only the students, but the teachers, scholars and researchers - all are learners in the library.

Maharaja Manindra Chandra College Central Library (MMCCCL) was started along with the establishment of the college in 1941 in order to cater the academic needs of the faculty, students and non-teaching staff of the college. The Central Library is situated on the 2nd floor of the main building of the College. Library has a collection of more than 42,000 books on different subject. Central library also subscribes to different types of periodicals, Magazine and Newspaper etc. Departments offering honours courses have individual seminar libraries. The Central Library has institutional Membership with British Council Library and the American Library. Our Central Library has subscribed e-resources through programme entitled “National Library and Information Services Infrastructure for Scholarly Content” (N-LIST). The resources are accessible from <http://nlist.inflibnet.ac.in> as soon as a user from member’s login.
